

Chris Cardona

Taken from a Facebook post and used with Chris' permission:

You know Mr. Vranish, I'm sure you've heard this from many a former student, but DAMN; high school sure was FUN when you were there! Regardless of your disciplinarian role, it always felt like you were more of a friend to us than "The Man."

Era: Mathis ISD Job: 1993 - 1997

Relationship: Chris was a young fellow who played football, but was a "regular" type of kid athletically. Nowadays, he is a fitness-person who even competes in endurance contests, etc! Paul loves his occasional Facebook comments; which are often sarcastic in the MOST funny way!
